Abstract:

Furniture is a growing business today. By offering a variety of products from a variety of models, they were promoting themselves to a lot of visitors visiting the place. One alternative means of promotion is done for marketing products and services that are generated by designing and creating a website and register it into the internet site so that it can be accessed by surfers in the international sphere.

Therefore, by using the HTML script in designing and creating websites, website maintenance is expected to become easier and the process of updating the data can be done.
