

NEEDS ANALYSIS IN HUMAN RESOURCE INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Joko Susilo, 10489033, Rafael Abdul Gafar, Ir.

Thesis, Information System, 1995

STMIK Jakarta STI & K

<http://www.jak-stik.ac.id>

Keyword: Information Technology

Abstract:

By looking at the growing market for information technology software, hardware and professional Jada from the year 1992 - 1995 is increasing from a total of 520 million U.S. dollars - 752 million U.S. dollars, and to see the development of market composition per sector of industry generally, Distribution, Production, and of the financial year 1992 - 1995, also increased the 520 million-720 million U.S. dollars to U.S. dollars then it can certainly be a lot of human beings needed to master the field of information technology in line with the needs of professionals in information on various industrial sectors in accordance with market labor.

Improvement of the need for human resources could also look at the projections of the need for human resources in the field of information technology from 1992 - 2020 the next. from these projections could see how the book of human resource needs in the field of information technology is always increasing.

Bibliography: 12 (1989– 1995)

