ABSTRACT

This paper studies the problems happen in school that is violence and aggression by student. The study uses social psychology aggression to explain the result. The data source is a Crow Zero of Japanese film. Thus, the result of the study was:

1. Actually aggression behavior came from the conflict of individual person to another, but social psychology proof that violence aggression is a problem was identified from conflict from group also. It means that problem of aggression behavior was born from grouping student in the school.
2. Look for the result I found two kind of aggression behavior. First is oral aggression, is like verbally attack to another with bad language or high intention. Example is shouting, provoke, stupidly call someone, and another thing. Second is physically aggression, is behavior to make another get pain physically. Is like, to make punch, kick, or attack somebody harshly.
