Key words; TOEFL Experience, Preparation and English Skills

INTRODUCTION

A. Background of the Problem

TOEFL has become one of the importance requirements to University students since it was determined as the requirement for academic demands. At University of Pasir Pengaraian, TOEFL is also offered to students before they followed the research paper test. The test is usually carried out orderly when they are at the fourth grade. Passing the TOEFL is not as easy as they completed their English subjects. Most of them are fail to fulfill the standardized grade ruled by University. Some issues on the TOEFL come appear to students and also their lecturers. Absolutely, all the issues have to be solved academically for better progress in the future.

B. Limited preparation on TOEFL

From the researcher’s previous observation, he found that students have problems in completing their TOEFL. The main problem faced is that the students do not have a good preparation before following a test of English as a foreign language. However, a good preparation needs to be planned and done by the candidate in order to get success on the test. Without a good preparation, the students might face some difficulties.

A good preparation refers to some cases such as what the test is like and what kind of strategies used. The fact shows that some students have limited knowledge about the test. Then, they do not prepare themselves with some strategies how to answer various questions given by the examiners. At section one; they do not know to complete several parts in listening section. Moreover, each of the part asks questions in different styles. In section two; it seems the time given is not enough to finish the question about structure and written expression. Moreover in section three, it is hard for them to read a lot of paragraph. In the other words, a preparation before completing TOEFL help students to get success at the test carried out. Missing the preparation causes the students get problems to answer the questions.

C. Poor English Mastery

Besides having problem with the preparation, students are also poor in English skills. The skills are listening, speaking, reading and writing. As far as the researcher experiences in his teaching, some students have various problems with all the skills. Some students are problematic with speaking and listening. It is hard for them to communicate in English whether to listen or to speak. In the other cases, some students are confused with grammar and vocabulary. All those problems also cause the students get low with their English subject.

Based on the explanation above, the researcher concludes that there are two problem faced by the students in completing the TOEFL. First, they do not have a good preparation before the test. And second, they do not master English skills well yet. That is why the researcher was interesting to carry out the research focusing on students’ experience on test of English as a foreign language.

Based on Statement of the Problem above, the researcher formed the research questions as follow:

1. How is students’ experience at TOEFL at 6th semester of English Department of Pasir Pengaraian University?

2. What difficulties are found by the students in completing the TOEFL?

REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE

A. Nature of TOEFL

Some definitions are given by experts related to the TOEFL. All propose that TOEFL is a standardized test at International level. Deborah (2001) states that TOEFL is a kind of English test in the world. It is only addressed to people who are not using English as their native language but as a second or a foreign language. It is a model used for academic purposes to measure an English foreign language learner’s English skill.

In addition to the TOEFL, Yilmaz and Zwier (2005) state that there is no a question that the TOEFL test is the most widely accepted English-language test in the world. It is also the most highly respected English-language test in the world. In fact, it’s the only test that simulates university classroom and campus life and was developed with the help of leading universities.

TOEFL as a standardized test has been widely used by international students who continue their studies to the foreign countries. Some students complete their test after having the test frequently. The standardized TOEFL score for admitting a University is different from other ones. The TOEFL score, which should be gained by students, is ruled by the authority at campus chosen.

B. TOEFL Format

There are two formats offered in TOEFL test. Deborah (2001) says that both formats are paper format and computer format. He adds that the paper format has four sections. They are listening section, structure section, reading section and test of written English.

a. Listening section

This section demands the examinees to demonstrate their ability to spoken English. The examinees must listen to various types of passage on a tape recording and respond to multiple choice questions about the passage.

b. Structure section

This section demands the examinees to recognize grammatically correct English. Examinees also must choose the correct way to complete sentences or find the errors in sentences.

c. Reading section

This section demands the examinees to understand written English. Examinees also must answer multiple choices questions about the ideas and the meaning of words in reading passages.

d. Test of Written English section

This section demands the examinees to produced, organized and meaningful English. Examinees also must write an essay on a given topic. But this test is not given with every administration of paper TOEFL test.

In the other hand, there is the other format of TOEFL test, namely computer format. It has some sections as follows;

a. Listening

Listening is examined to demonstrate their ability to understand spoken English, first the examinees must listen to the passages on headphones as they see pictures on a computer screen and then answer various types of questions about the passage that they just heard.
b. Structure
   Structure test is given to demonstrate their ability to recognize grammatically correct English. Examinees also must look at sentences on a computer screen and either choose the correct way to complete sentences or identify errors in the sentences.
c. Reading
   This section demands the examinees to understand written English. Examinees must read passage on a computer screen and answer various types of questions about the ideas and meaning of words in reading passages.
d. Writing
   This section demands the examinees to produce, organize, and meaningful English. Examinees also must write an essay on a given topic, either on the computer or by hand.

The finding is explained based on the order of the skill available in TOEFL test itself, namely listening comprehension, structure and written expression, reading comprehension and writing.

B. How is the students’ experience at TOEFL?

From the data collected through questionnaires and field note, it can be analyzed that most of the students have problems in completing the TOEFL test. Most of the problems found are about the two main important factors in completing the test, namely the strategy and the students’ English skills.

First, it is about the students’ view on the important of strategies in completing TOEFL test. The researcher sums his data on the table 1, as follows:

Table 1: The average of students’ view on factors influence TOEFL test

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NO</th>
<th>FACTORS INFLUENCE</th>
<th>SA</th>
<th>A</th>
<th>N</th>
<th>DA</th>
<th>SDA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Strategies on completing TOEFL test</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>26%</td>
<td>2%</td>

<td>2%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>English skills</td>
<td>10%</td>
<td>20%</td>
<td>2%</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>2%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

From table 1, it can be seen that 26% students gave answers Agree (A) and 6% students respond strongly agree. It means that most of the students agree that strategies on completing TOEFL are very important, and it influences the success of the test. While 6% of the students answer neutral and disagree. Similarly, having English skill is also important to the students who take the TOEFL. Where, 30% of students agree and the rest, 10%, are neutral and disagrees about it.

Second, it is the students’ view on the important of strategies in completing TOEFL test. The average percentage can be seen from the table 2.

Table 2: The average of students’ experience on TOEFL test

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NO</th>
<th>EXPERIENCE IN COMPLETING TOEFL</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Having English skills</td>
<td>8%</td>
<td>13%</td>
<td>9%</td>
<td>8%</td>
<td>2%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Table 2 shows that 22% students agree that they have their own strategy in completing TOEFL test, while 4% are neutral and 14% of the students disagree with it. And for having English skills, there are 21% agree, 9% are neutral and 10% got disagree.

From table 1 and 2, it can be concluded that there is different findings between the students’ view and their real experience in completing the TOEFL test. First, the students agree that strategy (32%) and English skill (30%) are important. Contrary to their experience, only 22% of the students that they agree that they have their own strategy in completing the TOEFL test and 21% agree that English skill influence their TOEFL test experience. Shortly, there is a different fact between the students’ view and their real experience in completing the TOEFL test.
C. What difficulties are found by the sixth semester students?

1. Listening Comprehension

   Table 3: Listening experience; Problem, Reasons and Effect among students

<td>The accent of some words almost similar.</td>
<td>Could not decide what the correct word is.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2</td>
<td>Almost no problem</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
